FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The BARCO Firm Earns National Recognition

HUNTSVILLE, AL – The BARCO Firm, a marketing technology company headquartered in Huntsville, was a nine time winner in the 2009 American Graphic Design Awards.

The American Graphic Design Awards draw thousands of entries from all over the country each year, highlighting top creative professionals. This year, the national competition received over 8,000 entries of which only 15% received an award.

“This is a testament to the hard work and collaborative effort that our creative team puts into each and every project,” said Dianne Barrett, president and CEO of The BARCO Firm. “It is always an honor to be recognized for your work, especially on a national stage.”

The BARCO Firm received American Graphic Design Awards for their work in website, print, and logo design. The BARCO Firm offers commercial, government and non-profit clientele a wide array of marketing technology services including Business Consulting, Creative Multimedia Services, Interactive Exhibits and Network/Hardware Support.
